

John Kim

johnkim49er@gmail.com | (562) 774-7350 | benidjones.github.io

EDUCATION

YALE LAW SCHOOL, J.D. Candidate

Expected May 2027

- Specializing in information technology and regulatory law

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY, A.B. summa cum laude in Economics, Phi Beta Kappa

May 2023

- Certificates: Computer Science, Political Economy
- Awards: Daniel L. Rubinfeld '67 Prize, best undergraduate thesis on empirical economics
QuestBridge Scholarship, full tuition and board for low-income, high-achieving students
- Thesis: Twitter Community Notes and the Political Economy of Social Media Disinformation

EXPERIENCE

CAPITAL ONE FINANCIAL CORPORATION, New York, NY

Aug 2023 - Aug 2024

Associate, Corporate Strategy

- Developed presentations alongside senior executives for the CEO in projects representing Capital One's highest strategic priorities (Projects: Commercial Banking, How We Build Software w/ AI, NBFI Strategy)
- Researched policy documents to summarize and present on implementation of upcoming Basel III Endgame regulations as well as other financial regulations to VP- and C-suite executives
- Analyzed survey data and built cost models to advise on the implementation of Github Copilot and other AI software development tools; presented insights to VP-level technology executives

YEXT, INC., New York, NY

Summer 2022

Intern, Technical Engagement Management

- Oversaw implementation and project management of Yext products for new clients (such as Mill Creek Residential and Booz Allen Hamilton), including building product roadmaps on Jira, presenting kickoff decks to clients, and communicating software requirements between client and Yext developers
- Consulted for existing Yext clients (such as Organic Krush and Farmers Insurance) on optimizing digital market presence, including SEO consulting for webpages and digital promotional campaigns

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL OF TEXAS, Austin, TX

Summer 2021

Intern, Consumer Protection Division

- Researched codebases, documentations, and industry comments to identify possible violations of consumer protection law in Texas v. Google
- Researched possible expert witnesses, indexed depositions from prior litigation, and authored documents explaining AI/ML technologies to assist with Texas's case in Texas v. Meta
- Assisted with documentation and summarization of everyday submissions to the Consumer Protection Division, including consumer complaints and CAFA notices

ACTIVITIES

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY SCHOOLS COMMITTEE

Nov 2023 - Present

Undergraduate Admissions Alumni Interviewer

PRINCETON UNIVERSITY DEPARTMENT OF POLITICS

May 2022 - May 2023

Research Assistant to Professors Matias Iaryczower, Caroline Barnett, and Andy Guess

- Research spans social media & politics, game theory, and computational social science

SKILLS & INTERESTS

Professional: Management Consulting, Project Management, Research Software Engineering

Technology: Java, R, Python, SQL

Interests (Academic): Antitrust, Computer Security/Privacy, AI/ML

(Personal): Sitcoms, Gaming, Travel, Recreational Volleyball